Field Visit Report:

Field visits play a vital role in enriching students' educational experiences, enhancing their skills, and preparing them for future academic and professional endeavors. Seeing real-world applications of their studies during field visits can inspire students and motivate them to excel academically and pursue their career goals with renewed enthusiasm. Field visits help students contextualize their learning by bridging the gap between theory and practice. They gain a better understanding of how concepts and theories are implemented in real-life settings, making their education more meaningful and relevant.

The Department of Commerce organized a field visit to the Ram Reddy Rice and Groundnut Mill located in Nagavaram, Wanaparthi, on April 18, 2023, for III & II year B.Com students.

During the field visit, under the guidance of Commerce faculty D. Haleema Begum, T.Shashikala and P.Radhika students had the opportunity to observe various processes at the Ram Reddy Rice and Groundnut Mill, including the peeling of groundnuts and paddy, grading, and separating.

With curiosity, students posed numerous questions to the proprietor about various aspects of the mill's operations, including the work processes, the workers' roles, material collection methods, marketing strategies, sales channels, client relationships, capital investment, and more. The proprietor graciously addressed all the questions posed by the students and extended well wishes to them all.

The students found the information provided during the visit to be valuable, and they were able to draw connections between the concepts discussed and their subjects such as cost accounting and financial accounting.

MARCH-2023

Department of statistics field visit to Wanaparthi Polytechnic Library to explore different books, journals, databases & other materials.

Today, we visited the local library with our student. As we walked in, the student's eyes widened with excitement, scanning the shelves stacked high with books. We explored the different sections together, discovering new authors and titles. The student eagerly picked out a few books to borrow, and we sat down at a cozy table to read together. The library was bustling with activity, but our student was fully engaged in the stories, asking thoughtful questions and making connections to their own life. It was a wonderful experience, watching them develop a love for reading and learning."
